

Changes to Safer At Home Effective April 24, 2020

Safe Business Practices For:

Essential Businesses &

Operations: Must increase cleaning and disinfection practices; ensure that only necessary workers are present; and adopt policies to prevent workers exposed to COVID-19 or symptomatic workers from coming to work.

Retailers that are Essential

Businesses & Operations: Must limit the number of people in the store at one time; must provide proper spacing for people waiting to enter; and large stores must offer at least 2 hours per week of dedicated shopping time for vulnerable populations.

Supply Chain: Essential Businesses & Operations that are essential because they supply, manufacture, or distribute goods and services to other Essential Businesses and Operations can only continue operations that are necessary to those businesses they supply. All other operations must continue as Minimum Basic Operations.

Businesses and activities that can increase services & operations:

Public Libraries: May provide curb-side pick-up of books & other library materials.

Golf courses: May open, with restrictions including scheduling & paying for tee times online or by phone only. Clubhouses and pro shops must remain closed.

Non-essential businesses: Can do more things as Minimum Basic Operations, including deliveries, mailings, and curb-side pick-up. Non essential businesses must notify workers of whether they are necessary for the Minimum Basic Operations.

Arts & Craft stores: May offer expanded curb-side pick-up of materials necessary to make face masks or other personal protective equipment (PPE).

Aesthetic or optional exterior work: Aesthetic or optional exterior lawn care or construction is allowed, so long as it can be done by one person.

Other changes including:

Schools: Public & private K-12 schools will remain closed for the remainder of the 2019-2020 school year.

Local parks & open space: Local health officials may close public parks and open spaces if it becomes too difficult to ensure physical distancing or the areas are being mistreated.

Travel: People are strongly encouraged to stay close to home, and not travel to second homes or cabins, and not travel out of state if it is not necessary.

Tribal Nations: Tribal nations are sovereign over their territory and can impose their own restrictions. Non-tribal members should be respectful of and avoid non-essential travel to tribal territory. Local government must coordinate, collaborate and share information with tribal nations.
